

REGISTER NOW!

6th Annual Hawai'i Conference on Language Access August 7-8, 2013 East-West Center

Ola Pono

Language Access in the Community Health Setting

Conference Objectives:

Understand the need and requirements for linguistic accessibility in the healthcare setting.

Learn about recent developments and best practices in medical/health interpretation/translation.

Develop networking opportunities for language access practitioners.

Featuring speakers from the following agencies:

- Office of Minority Health, Region IX (San Francisco);
- Asian & Pacific Islander American Health Forum (Washington DC);
- Oregon Health Authority (Portland);
- National Council for Interpreting in Health Care (Washington DC);
- National Board of Certification for Medical Interpretation (Stow, MA);
- Certification Commission for Healthcare Interpreters (Washington DC);
- Health Care Interpreting Network (Emeryville, CA);
- City University of New York (New York);
- Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc. (Oakland);
- Canadian Cancer Society (Toronto);
- Hawaii Department of Health;
- Hawaii Department of Human Services;
- Maui District Health Office;
- UH John A. Burns School of Medicine;
- UH William S. Richardson School of Law;
- UH College of Languages, Linguistics and Literature;
- UH Center for Interpretation and Translation Studies;
- Kapiolani Community College;
- Hawaii Interpreting Services;
- Hawaii Health Systems Corporation;
- Queens Medical Center;
- Kaiser Permanente;
- Hawaii Medical Services Association;
- Aloha Care;
- Kalihi Palama Health Center;
- Kookia Kalihi Valley Comprehensive Family Services;
- Waianae Coast Comprehensive Health Center;
- Micronesian Cultural Awareness Program;
- Micronesian Health Advisory Committee;
- Susannah Wesley Community Center;
- Asian American Network for Cancer Awareness, Research and Training;
- Hawaii Office of Language Access.

Sponsored by the Office of Language Access, State of Hawai'i, Phone (808) 586-8730