

Patient Protection & Affordable Care Act

Affordable and accessible prevention for all Americans

Dr. Maya Rockey Moore | May 24, 2013

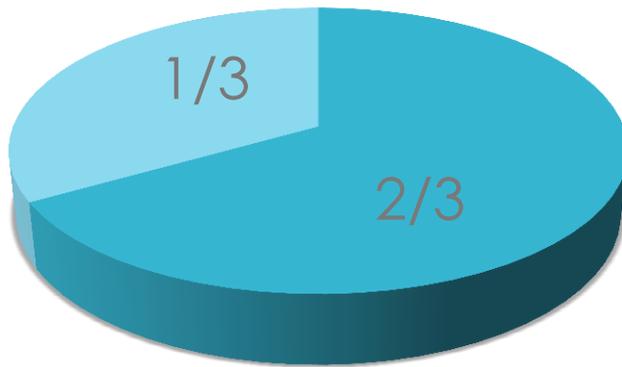

Health is Linked to Environment

American Public Health Association

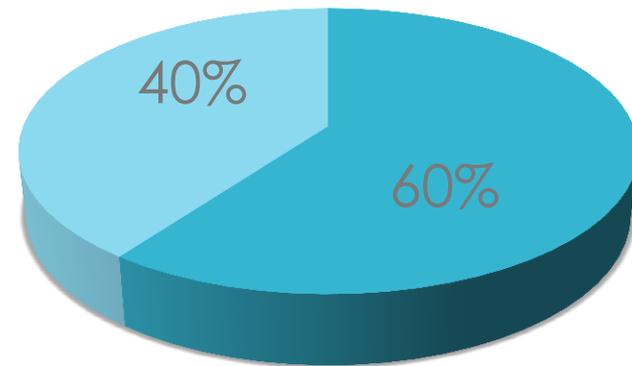

Prevention Can Improve Health

Cancers in the U.S.

- Preventable by lifestyle changes
- All others

Deaths in the U.S.

- Caused by social or behavioral circumstances
- All others

Prevention Can Prevent Obesity

American Public Health Association

From Sick to Health Care

Covered Preventive Health Services

Adults (15 total)

- Type II diabetes screening
- Obesity screening
- Diet counseling
- Blood & cholesterol screening

Women (22 total)

- Gestational diabetes screening
- Well-woman visits
- Contraception
- Domestic violence screening

Children (26 total)

- Obesity screening
- Autism screening
- Hearing & vision screening
- Height/weight/BMI measurements

From Sick to Health Care

The Prevention and Public Health Fund

$15 BILLION
TO KEEP AMERICA
HEALTHY

From Sick to Health Care

Increasing Investment in Public Health

Grants	Education & Outreach	National Strategy
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• School-based• Medicaid incentives• Community Transformation• Health Aging, Living Well• Epidemiology & Lab Capacity• Maternal, Infant, & Early Childhood	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nutrition & exercise• Obesity reduction• Tobacco cessation• Behavior change• Prevention for 5 highest disease killers• Nutrition information in restaurants & vending machines	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Prevention• Health promotion• Public & integrative health• National Prevention, Health Promotion, & Public Health Council

Center for Global Policy
Solutions

THANK YOU.

Dr. Maya Rockeymoore
President and CEO

twitter.com/mayarockeymoore huffingtonpost.com/dr-maya-rockeymoore weactradio.com/pivot-point-with-maya-rockeymoore

Making policy work for people and their environments.

1300 L Street, NW Suite 975
Washington, DC 20005
www.globalpolicysolutions.org

facebook.com/globalpolicysolutions

@policysolutions