Emily Jo Noschese received her Bachelors and Masters Degrees in American Sign Language and Signed/Spoken Linguistics at Gallaudet University. She has worked at the Hawaii School for the Deaf and the Blind (HSDB) as an ASL Specialist/Coach for the past three years. Emily Jo works very closely with the Elementary level teachers, aligning her instruction to the needs of the students who are at critical stages of first language learning. In addition to her collaboration with teachers in their classrooms, she also teaches ASL from a L1 (first language) perspective for all elementary level students. Emily Jo also works as an American Sign Language instructor at Kapi'olani Community College. Emily Jo is also passionate about educating others about Deaf Culture. She gives presentations and workshops on Deaf Culture, Linguistics, and Interpreting.

The workshops will be presented in American Sign Language.

If you need an auxiliary aid or accommodation due to a disability, or need a voice interpreter, please call (808) 586-8121 or e-mail dcab@doh.hawaii.gov two weeks before the event.
