

Hawai'i Traveler Tips

Aloha! Welcome to Island of Hawai'i

This guide serves to assist travelers with disabilities and health conditions by providing information about the accessibility of Hawai'i's airports and transportation systems. Also included is a list of medical supply companies and support services. Please make direct contact with any of the businesses or services in this guide to obtain additional information. This guide is also available at <http://health.hawaii.gov/dcab>. Information contained in this guide does not serve as an endorsement for these or other businesses or services, and is intended only as a resource.

The island of Hawai'i is the largest in the Hawaiian Island chain. Hilo is the county seat and is located in East Hawai'i. Kona is the other major service area and is located in West Hawai'i. Resources are listed for both areas where applicable.

Kona and Hilo International Airports

The State of Hawai'i Department of Transportation provides an Access Guide for passengers with disabilities on services (such as animal quarantine, ground transportation, motorized wheelchairs, porter services, accessible restrooms, TTYs) at the Kona and Hilo International Airports. Obtain this guide and further information at www.hidot.hawaii.gov/airports/ada. For more information, contact the Visitor Information Program at the Kona International Airport at (808) 329-3423 or for Hilo contact (808) 961-9321. You may find online information for both airports at www.hidot.hawaii.gov/airports/visitor.

Air Travelers with Disabilities

The U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) offers the following assistance and information for travelers with disabilities.

- Individuals who experience disability-related air travel problems, would like general information, or have questions on the rights of travelers with disabilities can call the DOT hotline at (800) 778-4838 (V) and (800) 455-9880 (TTY). Information about the Air Carrier Access Act, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of disabilities in air travel and to file a complaint can be found at <http://airconsumer.dot.gov/escomplaint/Consumer Form.cfm>.

The U.S. Transportation Security Administration, which is responsible for passenger airport security screenings, can provide information for travelers with disabilities and medical conditions in preparing for airport screenings at "Travelers with Disabilities and Medical Conditions" at (855) 787-2227 or at <https://www.tsa.gov/travel/special-procedures>.
