In An Emergency . . . .
Don’t Delay . . . . and DIAL 9-1-1!

✔ STAY CALM.

✔ TELL the dispatcher what happened. Be calm and speak slowly.
  S Explain the type of emergency.
  S Give your name and phone number of the phone you are using.
  S Give the EXACT address of the emergency.

✔ Be prepared to ANSWER questions like:
  S Is anyone hurt?  -  How many victims?
  S Are they breathing?  -  Is the injured person conscious?
  S Can they talk?  -  Is there a fire?

✔ LISTEN to the instructions the dispatcher gives you.

✔ DON’T hang up until the dispatcher tells you to.

✔ DON’T leave the scene of the emergency until help arrives.
  S At night, turn on the outside lights to help emergency medical responders find your location.
  S Make sure your house numbers are clear and visible from the street.

REMEMBER – for any emergency dial 9-1-1. YOU make the difference when precious seconds count.
