DOH vital records offices resume full in-person services

HONOLULU – The Hawai'i Department of Health (DOH) is resuming full in-person vital records requests on O'ahu. Throughout the pandemic, DOH processed birth, marriage, divorce, and death certificates received online, by mail, and with limited in-person capacity.

Beginning today, DOH's Vital Records Office will be open for in-person services Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

Appointment scheduling is available online. Preference will be given to those with appointments. Walk-in services will be available as time permits. Individuals are encouraged to begin an application online at <https://health.hawaii.gov/vitalrecords>.

These changes are for DOH's vital records office on O'ahu only.
